STRIKERS TO VOTE TOMORROW AND FRI.

Scovill Mfg. Co. and Chase Companies Report More Men Are Returning to Work Every Day.

Waterbury, July 7 .- Attorney Cornelius Danaher of Meriden, as counsel for the Connecticut Federation of Labor, today gave out a statement in h he tells of conferences held Waterbury manufacturers, diswith them the conditions upon hithe men now out on strike are peturn to work. He states that he found individual manufacurers willing o have all their striking employes reirn without discrimination, and furnetmore, he eavys, all the manufacwith whom he talked emphamed their desire to have their employer satisfied and contented.

Will Vote Tomorrow. Hawever, Attorney Danaher lays stress on the point that no specific preposals, and in fact no proposals, have been made by the manufacturers to their employes through him. He derires this thoroughly understood by the men on strike when they go to their meetings tomorrow and Friday to vote on the question of returning to work, but at the same time he earnestly hopes "that the men will return to work upon the conditions indicated and that industrial peace may restored to Waterbury." Many Workers Returning.

Several hundred of the strikers returned to their old places in the shops today. At the Scoville Mrg. Co. plant there were 333 more employes at work than there were yesterday, while at the Chase company factories there were 228 more.

Atty. Danaher, Coun- NEW HAVEN POLICE PROBE BOMB MYSTERY

Mysterious Explosion May Be Explained By Men Held in $50,000 Bonds.

New Haven, July 7 .- Police inquiry into a mysterious explosion here Sunday night has led them to conjecture as possible connection between this explosion and the finding of a bomb in Waterbury, which it is claimed was intended for the home of Superintendent of Police Beach. The Waterbury police have learned that the bomb found there was probably made in New Haven, transported on a trolley car, and hidden in a clump of bushes The two men arrested for having knowledge of it are held in $50,000 bonds each. They have said, according to evidence, that it was to be used at Superintendent Beach's house.

The explosion on Clay street here was at first attributed to a joker. But later the investigators decided that it was some kind of an arrangement which had been prematurely exploded. It shook the neighborhood of Fair Haven, but did little material

MEXICAN GOVERNMENT HAS NEW REVOLUTION

Outbreaks Seem of Minor Importance—Troops Dispatched to Scenes.

Eagle Pass, Tex., July 7 .- Reports that 12 bridges had been burned in Mexico south of Monclova gave rise today to rumors that a new revolution had broken out. Adolpho Gonzales was said to head the movement.

Washington, July 7 .- Revolutionary movements in various parts of Mexico were reported in advices received at the state department from American officials in that country. The movements apparently are unrelated and of minor importance but are being carefully studied by department officers.

Consul Blocker at Piedras Niegras, opposite Eagle Pass, telegraphed the department that General Gonzales, a nephew of General Pablo Gonzales, with a force estimated at between 50 and 200 men had revolted against the ! present government, cutting the lines south of Monclova, Coahuila, on July 4, and advancing as far north as Berroterran, where they are now located, holding coal mines. Federal General Morales left Piedras Niegras last night with 200 soldiers to attack the revolting force. Another federal column is reported to be advancing from Saltillo.

TEXAS MOB BURNS NEGROES AT STAKE

Two Brothers, Accused of Murdering White Man, Taken From Jail

and Lynched.

Paris, Texas, July 7 .- Extraordinary precautions were taken here today to prevent race trouble as a result of the action of a mob last night in burning at the stake Irving and Herman Arthur, negroes, accused of having killed J. Hodges and his son, William, white, at the latter's farm last

Armed volunteers patrolled the streets and there were reports that ment of the controv sultory firing had taken place in the outskirts. Sheriff C. D. Clarkson and his two deputies were away in search of other negroes suspected of implication in the killing of the white men. The mayor organized squads of volunteers and sent them into the negro quarter as a safety measure. The Arthurs were captured near Valiant, Okla., Sunday night by a posse and brought to the jail here. Last night a crowd appeared suddenly, stormed the jail and took the prisoners to the fair grounds where a stake and fuel had been prepared. According to officials, the Hodges were killed during a dispute over money due them from the negro tenants.

A report from Idabel, Okla., quoted Sheriff Clarkson, who was there last night in search of suspects, as saying that the men lynched might not have been guilty. According to R. E. Eubanks, county attorney, however, the negroes admitted the killings.
